
Instead Of The Ordinary

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 09 October 2009
Last Updated Friday, 09 October 2009

Personalized Father's Day gifts add a touch of love to your holiday offering. They show that you've taken the time to get something engraved, just for him, and created a gift from the heart. Many retailers and online stores can create personalized Father's Day gifts that will be ready in time for dad's special day. Some popular personalized Father's Day gifts are:

Engraved picture frames – Wonderful wooden or glass picture frames engraved with whatever special message you want to give your dad on his day. Write a poem or message from the heart. Add your name(s) and the date and you'll have a gift that will be treasured for a lifetime.

Personalized photo mugs – Take your favorite picture and have it placed on a mug. Dad will be able to take his kids everywhere and see them constantly with his cup of coffee or tea.

Dad's very own grilling apron – If dad loves grilling and great food, why not give him a gift he can use for that hobby? With dad's name printed right on the apron, everyone will know whose outdoor apparel it is.

Hand-print t-shirts – Some of the greatest personalized gifts are those made by the kids! This Father's Day, get one of dad's favorite shirts and personalize it with everyone's hand-prints! Fabric paints can be purchased at most discount stores or craft supply shops. He'll have a gift that can be cherished, since it will hallmark one size that the kids may never be again!

Personalized photo watch – Whenever dad looks at his watch, he'll get a pick me up with this personalized gift. Ask him what his favorite photo is and turn it into a time piece. Great for capturing a "moment in time" in the life of his family!

Personalized plaques and awards – Any dad loves being told he is #1! So, why not give him a plaque or award this year showing that you think he is the greatest! They can be as simple as something printed from a home computer to a glass or metal plaque he can hang on his wall.

The gift possibilities are endless! Personalized Father's Day gifts are sure to be a hit year after year!